

Common Young India, The Country is Waiting for You

The 70th Republic Day was celebrated in the auditorium of DLF World School with full zest and fervor. The auditorium was a beautifully adorned in tricolour. The celebration incepted with the school prayer which was followed by a Quiz on India . Zealous participation of Delfites filled the aura with patriotism.

Ananya Kakkar of class 8 and Pranjal of class 9 recited a well versed self composed poem. The poems were dedicated to our gallant martyrs, majestic army and constitution of India. The students coined the words which made the Delfites and teachers transfixed. The school echoed with tunes of patriotic fervor as the students of class 3 and 4 casted a spell by their gripping dance performance. Delfites did not make us come out of the atriotic ambience as the students of class 7 and 8 presented an emotional yet astonishing skit.

The students of senior wing presented a melodious and soulful rendition on 'akla cholo re'. The song was so engrossing that everyone started singing with the choir.

School Head, Ms. Dimple Puri highlighted the significance of the day, and made the children cognizant that the future of their country lies in their hands. Hence they need to study well and inculcate good values in life, which will help them to be good samaritans of the country. She also felicitated all the students and teachers for putting up a beautiful celebrations and the celebration ended with national anthem and chanting of Jai Hind.

